

NEW YORK ATTORNEY RECEIVES RE-CERTIFICATION IN ELDER LAW

Bernard A. Krooks, Esq., Managing partner in the law firm Littman Krooks LLP with offices in New York City and White Plains, NY, has been recertified as an elder law attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation (NELF). NELF is the only elder law certification organization accredited by the American Bar Association.

Elder law is a specialized area of law dealing with issues affecting the elderly, and people with disabilities and their families. Elder law attorneys bring a different perspective to the delivery of services to their clients. The purpose of the certification program is to identify those lawyers who have enhanced knowledge, skills, experience, and proficiency to be properly identified to the public as Certified Elder Law Attorneys.

Mr. Krooks is immediate-past President and Board Member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys. He is past Chair of the Elder Law Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and is Chair of its Continuing Legal Education Committee. In addition, Mr. Krooks is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC).
