NEW YORK CITY ATTORNEY ELECTED

Tucson, Ariz.-Bernard A. Krooks, CELA, Managing partner in the law firm of Littman Krooks & Roth with offices in New York City and White Plains, NY, has been elected president elect of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) at the Academy's Symposium on Elder Law held April 18 – 21, 2001 in Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

Mr. Krooks is chair of the Elder Law Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and a member of its executive committee. He is past editor-in-chief of the Elder Law Attorney, the newsletter of the NYSBA Elder Law Section and past editor of the NAELA News. In addition, he is a member of the Trusts and Estates Law Section and Tax Section of the New York State Bar Association; member of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section and Tax Section of the American Bar Association; and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He is also a Certified Elder Law Attorney by the National Elder Law Foundation.

Mr. Krooks is also a NAELA Fellow. Selection as a Fellow of NAELA acknowledges the highest degree of commitment to serving older persons and only 50 members have been honored as such since NAELA's inception in 1988.

NAELA was formed in 1988 to enhance the quality of legal services available to older persons in the United States. Members of NAELA are attorneys who have demonstrated experience and training in working with the legal problems of older Americans.
