

June 2008

Elder Law Bulletin

Greetings!

We have sent you this e-newsletter to keep you updated on the very latest in elder law news. Littman Krooks LLP is a law firm dedicated to serving the needs of seniors and those with special needs.

We are proud to announce the launching of our new website, www.littmankrooks.com, where you will find extensive information about Littman Krooks LLP in addition to a wide array of pertinent information and useful resources for seniors and their advocates.

As always, your comments and questions are important to us. You may send them to info@littmankrooks.com.

Second Marriages and Life Insurance

As second marriages become more and more common, beneficiary designations become more complicated. If you are remarried, choosing a beneficiary for your life insurance policy may not be simple -- especially if you have children from a previous marriage. When it comes to life insurance, how do you make sure your spouse is provided for without forgetting your children? Click here to read more.

In This Issue

Second Marriages and Life Insurance

Be Certain You Get the Pension You've Earned

Disinheriting a Relative Can Be Complicated

Quick Links

Our Website

Speaking Engagements

Planning For The Well Spouse

Join our Mailing List!

Be Certain You Get the Pension You've Earned

Are you having difficulty getting the pension or 401(k) plan funds you worked years to earn? Five pension counseling projects serving plan participants and their beneficiaries in 22 states can help. Click here to read more.

Disinheriting a Relative Can Be Complicated

You may feel that you have given one child more during your life, so he or she should get less in your will. Or you may want to cut out an heir altogether. Whatever the reason, disinheriting a close relative -- especially a spouse or a child - - can be complicated. Click here to read more