Students and recent graduates with disabilities, ages 12-25, their families and caregivers, are all invited to come learn about resources available to help with the transition to the adult world.

Community agencies and organizations will provide information on many topics important to a successful transition from high-school, including:

• Housing	• Mental Health	• Respite	• Health Services
• Self-Advocacy	• Legal Guardianship	• Travel Training/Transportation	• Post-secondary Education
• Benefits	• Day Services	• Financial Planning	• Recreation
• Case Management	• Vocations and Employment	• Self-Directed Services	• Autism

ALSO - Come visit our “EMPOWER” sessions for some intensive education on a variety of topics:

Supported Employment Possibilities ♦ Transportation Options ♦ Understanding Service Options for your Child ♦ Post-Secondary Education Options ♦ Using Technology-“TekPortal” Presentation

The Linkages Fair Committee is a consortium of parents, providers, and educators who use this fair to provide parents and children who are leaving high school with important and timely information on resources and opportunities available to help them with the “journey” to adult services.
