Elizabeth Valentin

evalentin@littmankrooks.com

Elizabeth Valentin is a partner with the law firm of Littman Krooks LLP. Her practice focuses on elder law, Medicaid planning, special needs planning, guardianships, asset protection planning, real estate, trust and estate administration, and estate planning.

She is a frequent presenter to consumer and professional groups as well as advocacy organizations addressing the legal, financial and other related issues which affect our senior population.

Elizabeth is certified as an Elder Law Attorney (CELA) by the National Elder Law Foundation (NELF).

She is a member of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA), the Elder Law and Trusts & Estates Sections of the NYSBA, the New York County Lawyer's Association and Dominican Bar Association. She is currently serving on the Executive Committee of the Elder Law Section of the NYSBA as Co-Chair of the Diversity Committee and also as a District Delegate.

Elizabeth received her undergraduate degree from the University of Pennsylvania and her Juris Doctor degree from the City University of New York School of Law.

She speaks fluent Spanish and presents to Spanish speaking seniors in partnership with various advocacy organizations.

Elizabeth is a freelance photographer. She founded the not-for-profit organization Ojitos, which teaches photography to inner city children who are survivors of domestic violence. She is also an adjunct professor at New York Law School where she teaches "Advanced Legal Methods."

Elizabeth is married and the mother of a beautiful baby girl.
