

The Kensington White Plain Presents

Let's Talk Assisted Living:

A Two-Part Series on How to Make a Successful Transition to Assisted Living

You've seen the signs – perhaps falls, increased frailty or worsening medical conditions in your loved one and you know in your heart the best decision is to move Mom or Dad into assisted living. But, where do you start? Please join us for this special Ask the Expert Virtual Speaker Series to assist you on your journey and answer questions for a positive transition into Assisted Living.

Tuesday, July 13th, 6:30pm - 7:30pm EDT

Part I: How to Have "The Talk" and How to Pay for Assisted Living

Our experts will provide tips on how to have the discussion with your loved one in a non-intimidating manner so they understand your concerns. This virtual discussion will also give an overview of resources to help pay the fees in assisted living.

Tuesday, July 27th, 6:30pm to 7:30pm EDT

Part II: The Move - How to Get Organized and Sell the Home

This installment will teach you how to dress your house for success to sell, and provide the top 10 downsizing tips to make the process of moving from the home as seamless as possible.
